Dear Kathy,

Thank you from Bee-Line Express! We are now well into 2010, a new decade with new hope for a better economy, and a positive future for our children and grandchildren. The last decade taught us all alot about materialism, personal responsibility, and moral obligation.

Along with most other small businesses in the community, Bee-Line had a challenging 2009. We have learned many times over since we began in 2002 that continual change is normal and there is always room for improvement and re-evaluation. At Bee-Line we continually look for ways that we may extend our services to support our niche clientele.

Being members of the 'Baby Boomer' generation, and having experienced first hand the difficulty of working full time and helping care for our parents, it has come to our attention that there is a need for a service that could step in when you can't be there yourself. You will soon be hearing more about what we have in mind to extend our services in that direction. And of course if it's Bee-Line, it will Bee-Unique. Stay Tuned!

Hug all your loved ones, and have a
'Happy Valentines Day'
Kathy
